

Executive Profile

Terri Waller is not afraid to get her hands dirty, both figuratively and literally. Being a part of Food Safety Project Management Firm, she encounters unsanitary and dirty kitchens on a regular basis. But, her vision and goals overshadow what may seem like an obstacle. Ms. Waller understands the most important benefit of the company's efforts is protecting the community. Operating from a passion she developed as a restaurant manager, she assists these food service professionals in developing safe facilities and educates them on how to be proactive with food safety. Her dedication to this endeavor is bolstered by her talent and past accomplishments.

With more than 11 years of military leadership and experience in restaurant management, Ms. Waller brings a wealth of knowledge to her position as CEO of The Benson Mills Group. She has proven herself to be a dynamic and amiable executive as she brought the company from conception to a viable and strong leader within the food service industry.

A graduate of Auburn University at Montgomery with a degree in Business Administration, she has served in leadership positions with the Alabama Air National Guard, where she has been highly recognized and rewarded for her management skills. Continuing to serve in the National Guard as a Non Commissioned Officer, she works as the Base Education Training Manager. To add to these accomplishments, she is also a Certified Food Safety Manager, a Certified Food Safety Instructor and Exam Proctor through the National Restaurant Association Educational Foundation, and a Certified Hazard Analysis Critical Control Point Manager.

She is also an industry and community leader, serving on several boards and committees. These include being a board member of the Attack Youth Soccer Club, Inc., a member the Atlanta Metropolitan Black Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Georgia Restaurant Association, where she is on the Professional Development Committee. Participating in these activities helps her to achieve a long term goal of being a driving force in the economic development of her community.
